V.
United States Department of Justice,
Defendant

Motion for an expansion of time until Monday June 23 to file a motion for reconsideration

A motion for reconsideration would normally have to be filed by June 13. The plaintiff requests an extension to June 23, because the court ruled on her objection and two dispositive motions with no text explanation.

The plaintiff repeatedly emailed the defendant to confer from Sunday through today continually resetting deadlines.. The defendant simply did not respond until she told him she would file it as a consent motion. Then he emailed that he takes no position.

Respectfully,
